Washington State has completed their audit and only a couple of issues came up including a document with Whitman County that will need to be resolved. He was appointed to be a representative for the Washington Retirement Board for police officers. He is waiting on 2 more bids to come in to complete the floors in the offices.

Shon Clark said that MayDay went well, and he has heard good responses throughout town for the event. Monty will be taking his CDL training shortly. Mayor Pfaff asked if the meter installations had been completed and Shon replied there are few that still need to be replaced and are delayed due to technical issues. 4 will need to be swapped out due the equipment not working correctly. Connie Schaut questioned the flow at the sewer plant and Shon said they are still at about 100,000 gallons. Tom Tevlin asked if the I&I lining appears to be helping and Mayor Pfaff said it doesn't appear so at this time.

Mayor Pfaff said he heard many good things about MayDay and thanked the guys for putting on the event. Marshal Handley said he heard that people liked it being downtown and not at the park. This also allows for challenging weather and accommodations in case of rainy conditions. Possibly next year they will need to get some porta potties and maybe try having the dance and music on Friday night and family events on Saturday.
